Productivity Expert, Lisa Montanaro, Chosen as Moderator of first Golden Circle Ask the Organizer Panel at 2011 National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) Conference

Lisa Montanaro, Certified Professional Organizer[®] and owner of LM Organizing Solutions, LLC[™] in Warwick, NY, has been chosen as the moderator of the Golden Circle Ask the Organizer Panel for the 2011 National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) Conference to be held in San Diego, CA from April 7-9, 2011.

Golden Circle is the upper echelon of NAPO members that have been in business for 5 years or more. The traditional Ask the Organizer Panel is made up of select leaders in the industry and questions are asked by any organizer regardless of level or years of expertise. The new Golden Circle panel is made up only of Golden Circle members, and questions will only be permitted by other Golden Circle members, making it truly a panel of, and for, experienced professional organizers.

Ms. Montanaro, who was an Ask the Organizer panel member at the 2010 NAPO Conference is delighted to be back this time as the new moderator. "I am thrilled and honored to have been chosen as the moderator of the first Golden Circle Ask the Organizer Panel," says Ms. Montanaro. "I am looking forward to a wonderful session. The panel is top notch and consists of veterans who are true experts in the industry. They will make my job as moderator easy for sure!"

LM Organizing Solutions, LLC[™], established in 2002, is a professional services firm offering organizing, business and life coaching, and motivational speaking to individuals, organizations, and corporations. Owner, Lisa Montanaro, is a Golden Circle member of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO), and an inaugural Certified Professional Organizer[®]. Her first organizing book, The Ultimate Life Organizer: An Interactive Guide to a Simpler, Less Stressful & More Organized Life will be launched in February 2011 by Peter Pauper Press.
